Sale Host Comments

Greetings friends & cattlemen,

Well, it has been a while. Almost 16 years since the last Western Collection Sale on November 17, 2007. A lot has changed in the cattle business since then. Looking back through the old sale catalogs, the type and kind of cattle we produce today has definitely changed. The market that we produce in has absolutely changed on both sides of the equation. I just looked at last week's market report from the Woodward Livestock Market. There were 65 steers that averaged 871 pounds that brought an average price of $243.12 per cwt. That's $2,117.57 per head! I know that's not a record as we hear higher prices on market reports and see them on social media, but it is a great example of where the market is today. That coupled with a demand for improved genetics at the seedstock and multiplier levels is one of the main reasons for bringing back the Western Collection. There is opportunity in this market for adding genetics to your cow herds. At these current market levels, it has likely never been more cost effective to invest in herd improvement.

The set of cattle in this offering are coming from new and old friends alike to the Western Collection. It is great to once again work with old friends Ricky Taylor, Damon Fesmire, Bruce Melton and Dean Kephart. It is also great to have old friends selling cattle with us, as Greg Hale and Jeff Pollock are offering a solid set of spring calving bred heifers. Additionally, it is great to welcome Blake Holley and Rocking H Genetics to the Western Collection sellers list. He is bringing high quality lots to the offering. As you go through the catalog and view the videos, please feel free to contact any of the breeders, consultants or sale staff with any questions you may have.

One of the primary reasons for once again bringing this offering together is to open doors and provide opportunity for the next generation of beef producers. It is not a coincidence that this sale is happening on the same weekend as one of the biggest junior cattle shows in our area, the Stierwalt Cattle Battle. It is also fall break for most Oklahoma schools, and with that we hope to see a lot of 4-H and FFA livestock judging teams at the Western Collection Cattle Judging Contest on Friday, October 13. We will have 8 placing classes and 2 keep/cull classes that will provide a great opportunity for up and coming beef judges to develop their skills.

We hope that you will come and join us on sale day. We look forward to seeing you. The cattle will be in place at the Ben Branson Sale facility on the south edge of Foss, Okla., on Thursday afternoon, October 12. Sale staff and breeders will be available through out to assist you and answer any questions. On behalf of all the breeders of the Western Collection, I greatly appreciate your interest in the cattle and our sale as we bring back "Old Traditions and New Beginnings".

Sincerely,
Phil Purvine

It was a tough decision for Becca to sell this late October Simmental female. 2104J is very complete in her overall design and ultra sound on the move. Becca showed her dam, DMCC Emma 91E, many times with great success. 2104J will calve this spring with one of the first calves out of our new Angus herd sire CLF 24 Karat 31K.

2132J is the prime example of how LLSF Excess Cash E906 just stamps his progeny. This is an exquisite baldy female that is just about to start her cow career. This one has donor written all over her. The half blood calf she's carrying by CLF 24 Karat 31K could easily pay for her purchase.

The decision to part for one of this caliber is difficult for a young producer developing a program. However, Ashlee's decision to offer 2112J will be the gain of this tremendous purebred Simmental female's new owner. 2112J is the complete package with unlimited potential to impact the Simmental breed for years to come.

At Cattlemen's Congress last January, the girls and I were impressed and intrigued with TSSC BT Limit Up 1099J ET. We didn't know his name, breed, pedigree or anything about the bull when we first saw him. What we did know, is that Limit Up is what we think a beef bull should look like. Later in the year another opportunity presented itself in a call from Jared Shipman about an upcoming sale in northern Iowa. In viewing the offering online, I found 215J. This daughter of the popular HPF Quantum Leap Z952 and Ruby NFF Rhythm B094 is proving herself to be a an impressive young cow. She flushed well after having her first calf by THSF Lover Boy B33, producing 15 grade 1 embryos. Offering 3 grade 1 embryos. Guaranteeing one pregnancy if transferred by a certified embryologist.

We have been keeping this bull to use in case something were to happen to his sire. Well, this is a cow sale and if you are going to have a good sale, you have to offer your best. This bull has stood out in his contemporary group since day one. 2116J offers power and muscle demension in a stylish, extended package that travels with balance and ease across the pasture. His mother was purchased as part of a pair at the Wild Cat Creek dispersal in 2015. Her dam, EBY/PRS Drive Me Home (Steel Force) was a cornerston donor for the Eby program and Wild Cat Creek.
